

COURT ORDERED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

[English Version]

You may be a member of the settlement class in Noemi Peraza Lopez v. Noble Credit Union, Case No. 24CECG00076, in which the plaintiff alleges that defendant Noble Credit Union (“Defendant”) violated the California state civil rights act because it had a policy of denying consumer automotive loans to applicants based on their immigration status and/or lack of U.S. citizenship. Defendant denies the plaintiff’s claims but has decided to settle to avoid the time and expense of litigation. If you are a Class Member and if the Settlement is approved, you may be entitled to receive a check in the amount of $3,000 from a total settlement fund of $159,000.

The Court has preliminarily approved this settlement. It will hold a Final Approval Hearing in this case on December 18, 2024. At that hearing, the Court will consider the following: (1) whether to grant final approval to the settlement; (2) whether to approve Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees, estimated to be $50,000, and estimated costs of $174; (3) whether to approve a $5,000.00 service award for the Named Plaintiff; and (4) whether to approve the cost of an administrator to implement the settlement, which are estimated to be $10,000. All fees and costs are being paid by Defendant in addition to the total settlement fund. Defendant has agreed not oppose Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees up to $50,000.

If you do not want to participate in this settlement—meaning you do not want to receive a check payment and preserve your right to sue Defendant individually—you may exclude yourself by mailing an opt-out request postmarked no later than October 21, 2024 to the Settlement Administrator at the following address: RG/2 Claims Administration, P.O. Box 59479, Philadelphia, PA 19102-9479. If you do not opt out and the Court grants final approval of the settlement, then you will receive a check in the amount of $3,000 but you will release any claims that you may have against Defendant that are alleged in the Complaint in this case.

If you want to object to this settlement, or any part of it, because you think it is not fair, adequate, or reasonable, you may object by mailing an objection to the Settlement Administrator postmarked no later than October 21, 2024. If your objection is overruled, then you will receive a check for $3,000 but you will release any claims you have against Defendant that are alleged in the Complaint in this case.

If you do not cash the check within 120 days after it is sent, then the Court may allow these unclaimed funds to be paid to a charity approved by the Court.
